

Mrs. Wison occupied a box at the concert ysterday afternoon at the National Theater to hear Anna Case. Her guets in the box were Mrs.
Franklin Roosevelt, Mrs. Albert Erskine, of Chicago, Mrs. Reginald Fendall and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones.
Rev. and Mrs. F. Ward Denys entertained in the adjoining box, their faughts. Miss. Gwendelen Trans tertaine in the adjoining box, their daughts, Miss Gwendolen Denys, Mrs. Feston Peters, Miss Alberta Peters and Mrs. Louis Pennington. Mrs. Ielos Blodgett entertained in her be her daughters, Miss Helen and Mona Blodgett, their guest, Miss Marior Hilliard, Miss Madeleine Aus-Marior Hilliard, Miss Madeleine Aus-tin and Mrs. George F. Becker. Mrs. ms F. Logan entertained a box party her guests including Mrs. R. W. Rraus, Mme. Zaldivar and her siste; Princess Ghika and Mrs. Victor Lauffmann. Some of the others at he concert were Dr. and Mrs. Roland Parker Whitridge, Maj. Pul-man, Mrs. Burton, Miss Gladys Hirckley, Mrs. E. H. Gheen and Miss Ghen, Mrs. Henry Conger Pratt, Miss Jom Ohl, Mrs. Frank Reeside, Mrs. Hint Slater, Miss Anne E. George. Ms. Francis LeBaron Smoot, Mrs. Bowning and Mrs. W. L. Radcliffe.

Vice President and Mrs. Thomas R. Narshall will be the guests of hono Joseph S, Frelinghuysen will give this evening.

The Minister of Switzerland and lime. Sulzer will be hosts at a musicale this evening.

One of the most attractive par ties of the season was given last evening at Rauscher's when a group of the season's debutantes were committee included

Miss Mary Duncan Gibson, Miss Enid Sims and Miss Margaret Dev-ereux. The chaperones were Mrs. Richardson Gibson, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Blaine Elkins, Mrs. Walter Jeffords, Mrs. Hart Gibson, Mrs. Henry Crosson, Mrs. Eugene Deuth and Mrs. Jouett Shouse. The company included buds of this year and last, each having two soldier guests. The girls wore fancy costumes and the men were in uniform, but all were masked. One of those entertaining at din-was Mrs. Delos Blodgett for her daughters, Miss Helen Blodg-ett and Miss Mona Blodgett and their guest, Miss Marion Hilliard, whose engagement to Delos Blodgett, jr., was recently announced. There were about 12 guests at the dinner, all of the men being soldiers, Miss Helen Blodgett wore a Swiss costume, complete to the silver buckles and lace cap, which they bought when they were abroad he last time. Miss Mona Blodgett trimmings of black lace and a black Richmond. Miss Hilliard looked very handsome in a Spanish gown of red silk with Representative and Mrs. Fred Britten were hosts at dinner last evening when their guests includ-ed Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George Bar-nett, Col. and Mrs. George Downey, Mrs. Jaises R. Mann, Representative and Mrs. Medill McCormick, Repre-sentative and Mrs. Ira C. Copley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Logan, Maj. rs. Charles McKenney, Mrs. Kauffmann, Consul General to Peru and Mrs. William W. Hand-ey, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McKenney, Paymaster General Samuel Mc-Capt. Barbee.

Harry Leonard is giving for her de-thutchins; and Ames Brown.

The dining-room at the Highlands where the dinner was served, was leocrated with palms, clusters of at a dinner this evening at the Chevy oridal wreath and roses. It was progressive dinner, the guests being seated at small tables and moving from table to table after each course. The tables were decorated with dainty individual bouquets of weet peas and roses which were avors for the ladies. An orchestra played throughout the dinner and or the dancing which followed. Mrs. James H. Channon is expected on fonday to be the guest for several weeks of Representative and Mrs. Several parties have been planned in her honor during her

Mrs. Harry Leonard entertained at a box party at the Belasco Thette Thursday evening for laughter, Miss Louise Thoron.

Miss Ellen Bruce Lee entertained number of young people at din-ion last night to Join Mrs. War-jurg in New York, where she has seen for several days. They will soth return on Monday. Mr. and seen for several days. They will soth return on Monday. Mr. and frs. Warburg will attend today the narriage of the niece of Mrs. Warours, Miss Margaret Seligman, laughter of the late Isaac Newton

REDUCING THE DIVORCE AVERAGE

The other day a well-known divorce awyer made the remark that the maprity of women seeking divorce are at. As a woman advances from youth a middle size, she thickens and roadens (unless she be wise); hence, usband grows less anxious to please er, as her charm over others grows ass. In time this process ends up in divorce court.

er, as her charm over others grows as. In time this process ends up in divorce court.

Women who have (husbands) must old. For this nothing serves like a outhful figure. But how overcome he thickening of middle age? Very imple. Exercise will not do-does not ousework fail? And dieting makes rinkles. Instead, escape both bother nd wrinkles by taking a Marmola ablet after each meal and at bedime. These tablets will take off a ound of fat a day-beginning the rejuction where it shows the most, viz., n hips, chin, abdomen, etc. Get down it has the cocasional help of a tablet. Indicipate no ill-effect; there will be one; the tablets will rather increase gur well-being, being, as they are, a uaranteed reproduction, in convenit form, of that famous fashionois formula, ½ oz. Marmola, ¾ oz. expermint Weter. They are also low i cort a large case of the makers, etroit, Mich., or of any drugsist, wing only servety-ve ents.—Adv.

The Preident and Mrs. Wilson attended the performance at the Belasco Theater 1st evening. With them were Mrs. Willim H. Boiling, Miss Bertha Bolling aff John Randolph Bolling.

Scott Bromwell who is visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Bromwell, will return to Harvard Wednesder. his mother, Mrs. Charles Bromwell, will return to Harvard Wednesday

The officers of the 211th Field Artillery stationed at Camp Meade will entertain at a dinner and dance or the evening of Saturday, February 9 at the camp.

Miss Edith Creel Spofford, daughter of Mrs. E. F. Spofford and grand-daughter of the late A. R. Spofford. who was for thirty years librarian of Congress, was married at noon yes-terday to Harry Ellis Chandlee, of New York. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Safford, in Mount Pleasant street, with a little company of relatives and close friends as witnesses, and was folfriends as witnesses, and was fol-lowed by an informal breakfast for the wedding guests.

Rev. Dr. G. C. F. Brantenahl performed the ceremony. Mr. Safford escorted the bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, and her litniece, Miss Bernice Safford, was

The house was decoated with palm and Southern smilax, pink roses and white Hlac, with standards of Easter lilies flanking the prie dieu where the bridal couple knelt. The bride word a becoming gown of ivory white satin with panels of tulle. The bodice was built of crystal and pearl embroidery, with sleeves of tulle; and the short train of the gown was cut in one with the skirt. She wore a tuile veil with orange blossoms and carried a white bound prayer book.

The flower girl wore a picturesque gandle pockets and sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. A hat of white lace over pink completed her costume. Mrs. Spofford's gown was of black chiffon velvet trimmed with black and gold embroidered net, and Mrs. Safford wore a handsome costume of black lace over white. Mr. Chanlee and his bride left town yesterday afternoon and after a wed-ding trip will make their home in New York. Mrs. Chandlee will travel in a smart tailored suit of dark blue cloth, worn with a small blue velvet hat and natural lynx furs.

Miss Anne Safford was among the guests at the ceremony, coming to Washington especially for her niece's wedding. The bride's brother, Lieut. Robert Wilsie Spofford, U. S. N., who is on recruiting duty in South Caro-lina, was to have come on for the

Mrs. A. E. Murphy entertained at tea yesterday afternoon at the Wil-lard in honor of Mrs. Merkle, formerly Miss Frances Ella Betz, of Philade

Mrs. Cato Sells entertained at

Mrs. Glennon, wife Mrs. Glennon, wife of Admiral James G. Glennon, and their daughter, Mrs. Matthew H. Cross, who have

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes, of New York, have taken the house, 1821 Massachusetts avenue for the remainder of the winter.

Miss Katherine Burritt, of Fairfax County, Va., who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richardson Gibson, is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Elkins.

Miss Hallie Davis, debutante daugh-Miss Hallie Davis, debutante daugnney, Mrs.
I General
W. HandW. HandW. HandWhich Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins will give this evening. There will be covers for twenty. The guests will later attend the dance which Mrs.

Chase Club for her guest, Miss Betty

Miss Helen Cannon will be hostess at a tea this afternoon for her nieces, Miss Virginia LeSeure and Miss Helen

Mrs. Horace Towner, president of the Congressional Club, will entertsin at a tea at the club this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Atlee Pomerene, wife of the Senator from Ohio, and former president of the club,

Of interest to Washington is the Mrs. Grace McMillan Gibson is of Miss Kate Cumming Northrop, spending several days at the Ritz Carlton in New York. and Williard Benjamin Weisblatt, U. S. R., formerly of this city.

Miss Amabel Jenks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Jenks, of Lawrence Park, Bronxville, N. Y., and Capt. Christiancy Pickett, of the Thirteenth Field Artillery, U. S. A., were mar-rled on Monday, January 28, in Christ Church, Bronxyille, the Rev. Charles E. Robinson officiating. The bride is a daughter of Tudor Jenks, the noted lawyer and writer. Capt. Pickett is a son of the late Maj. George E. Pick-ett, U. S. A., and grandson of Gen. George E. Pickett, of Confederate

On their way to Camp Greene, North Carolina, where Capt. Pickett is stationed, the bride and groom stopped over in Washington to spend a few hours with Capt. Pickett's grand-mother, Mrs. LaSalle Corbell Pickett, who for many weeks has been se-riously ill with pneumonia.

They were greeted by Gen. C. C. Sniffen, Maj. Pickett's former commander, and Mrs. Sniffen, and by Col. and Mrs. Lord, Col. Lord having served with Maj. Pickett in the Philippines, and by others who learned of their short solourn. The marriage was hastened by the call of Capt. Pickett to active service. Pickett to active service.

Mrs. Nanette B. Paul, of 2007 Colum bin Road, will continue the delightful Saturday evening at homes throughout the season. Prominent speakers will take part in the discussion of world democracy.

Beginning today, Mrs. Landis will receive the knitted garments and give out the "melting pot" wool at her residence, 1413 Twenty-first street, every Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5.

Mrs. Beverley Randolph Mason will not be at home today, but will be at bome the following Saturday with the faculty and students of Gunston Hall for the last time before Lent.

Mrs. Christian Hemmick, who has arranged so many artistic entertainments at Washington, gave the fashionable circles of New York a unique treat last week, when, at the opening of the Hotel des Artistes auditorium, she presented a series of kaleidoscopic tableaux. The series arranged and produced by Mrs. Hemmick, an allegorical pantomine of war, was quite the most notable feature of the program. The cast included professionals of high standing. While Mrs. Hemmick adheres to her conviction that amsteurs gave a freshness and nalvette to a performance, she finds that professionals are much more bidable and attentive, and give far less work for the produces and use far less work for the produces and use far less work for the produces. much more bidable and attention and give far less work for the producer, and upon whom they depend with absolute confidence, which the with absolute connuence, which the amateur does not.

Mrs. Hemmick is spending the winter at New York, where she has a studio apartment at the Hotel

Mrs. John Hays Hammond will be at home informally this after-noon from 5 to 7 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of the infantry branch of the Army Emergency Committee at the Highlands on Wednesday, February 6, at 2:30

Mrs, Josephus Daniels, Mrs. William S. Benson, Mrs. William C. Braisted and Mrs. Albert L. Mills are among the ladies who will preside at the tea table at the benefit tea and sale which will be given on Saturday afternoon, February 3, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp's residence, Ital 1 wentieth street, for the immediate relief of the families of the sailors lost on the Jacob Jones. Mrs. Alexander Sharp and Mrs. Stimson Brown will take tickets, and will have tickets on sale. Mrs. Brinton Stone is in charge of arrangements for the

The first of an interesting series of lectures on international affairs will be given this morning at the Washington Clüb at 11:30 o'clock, by Mrs. Jackson Flerning. Mrs. Fleming, who has lectured with great success in New York and Boston, will be introduced to Washington by Mrs. Charles Tracy, daughter of John Bigelow, who is spending the winter here. is spending the winter here.

The dates of the other lectures are February 9, 16 and 23.

shortly give a Sunday afternoon talk at the Congressional Club on "Auto-cracy versus Democracy." The date has not yet been definitely selected. Mrs. Vernon Kellogg, the only woman who served with the Belgian relief committee in Belgium, spoke on Belgium yesterday afternoon at the usual Friday afternoon reception at the club. The talk which Representative C. B. The talk which Representative C. B. Timberlake was to have given yesterday on "A Trip to the Trenches" has been postponed until next Friday. Thursday evening there was a dance at the club for members and their

For the benefit of their war service work the League of American Pen-women will give a duplicate course of ten lectures, entitled "On the Map as It Was and Is," at their headquarters at 1623 H street beginning next Tues-day morning at 11 o'clock. The same lecture will be repeated that evening at 8:15. Mrs. Florence Jackson Stoddard, author, lecturer and educator, who has traveled and studied in all the countries and districts involved in the world war, has volunteered her serv-ices for the lectures. She will use piaps and pictures to illustrate them, and will give a complete exposition of the political divisions, geography and literature of the places involved in the war regions. The patronesses are:
Mrs. Lansing, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Burleson, Mrs. Champ
Clark, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, Mrs.
John B. Henderson, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins and Mrs. Charles Saltzman.

Mrs. James R. Mann is to be the guest of honor at the tea on Wednes ebruary & given by the No. tional American Woman Suffrage As-sociation, 1628 Rhode Island avenue. Mrs. Theodore W. Noyes, a member Mrs. Frank Vanderlip is chairman, will be the hostess and will be assisted by the other members of the hostess committee and Mrs. Louis Brownlow. At the tea table will be Mrs. Joseph E. Ransdell, Mrs. Thomas P. Gore, Mrs. William F. Kirby, Mrs. Joseph I. France, Mrs. Howard Suth-erland. Mrs. William H. King and Mrs. Alben W. Barkley.

The Duchess of Richelten will give concert Thursday evening, February for the tuberculous soldiers of rance. It was arranged to have it at the house of W. P. Eno, but so many tickets have been sold that Mrs. T. T. Gaff has kindly given the use of her house, which will seat more than Mr. Eno's. Tickets can be had at the house of Mrs. Archibald Hop-

Mrs. Margaret C. Lander, widow of apt. Frank C. Lander, en route from San Francisco, Cal., to Pittsburgh, Pa., is spending a few days with her aunt, Miss Harriet P. Lander, at the Atlantic apartments, 1305 Tenth street.

MANY JOBS OFFERED IN CIVIL SERVICE

Civil Service authorities yester-lay announced examinations to fill day announced examinations to fill the following vacancies:

Powder and explosives chemist, male, and assistant powder and explosives chemist, male, application received and rated at once; mechanical draftsman, Ordnapce Department, applications received and rated immediately; inspector of material for small arms, male, applications received and rated immediately; inspector of material for small arms, male, applicaterial for small arms, male, applicaterial for small arms, male, applica-tions received and rated at once; pathologist in forest tree rust in-vestigation, male, Bureau of Plant Industry, March 5, apply for Form 2118, Civil Service Commission; reg-istrar, male, signal service at large, February 26, apply for Form 1312. Civil Service Commission; plumber's assistant qualified as bricklayer and plasterer, male, March 5, apply for plasterer, male, March 5, apply for Form 1800, Civil Service Commis-sion; laboratory aid in chemistry sion; laboratory and in chemistry and physics, male, March 6, apply for Form 1312, Civil Service Com-

ACADEMY RETREAT OPENS.

Rev. Wendell C. Corcoran, C. S. C. of Notre Dame University, officiated at the opening of the annual retreat for students at the Holy Cross Acad-

This morning, little book, Mollie came in to see me and what she had to say almost made me laugh, although to her, poor dear, the experience she told about was all but tragic. "Margie, did you know that Mother came last night?" she asked.

"No." I answered in great surprise, for I had understood that Mr. Trent had decided to make California their home.

"Well, they are here at my house now."

"Goodness, Mollie, why didn't they go to a hotel?"

"For the same reason that made Mother decide to come home." She hesitated a minute and then said, "Mother decided that she ought to be with me to comfort me, and so without consulting any one in the matter she persuaded Mr. Trent to bring her back. He tells me that he did not want to come but Mother insisted that her place was with her child in such a crisis.

"But, of course, Mollie,' said Mother who had evidently forgotten in the matter who had evidently forgotten in the matter who had evidently forgotten in the prick of her egotism that she had."

for us. Mr. Trent has evidently said Mother. I consider it my duty to learned his lesson, for he was standing right behind her looking very ing moment. Chadwick must be made when the butler announced, much to Mollie's heart bleed more than it is Gives Recital at National.

Anna Case, the well known so rano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, made her song recital yesterday afternoon at the National Theater, one of the most delightful concerts of the Ten-Star Series.

Miss Case has one of the mos Miss Case has one of the most beautiful lyric soprano voices on the stage, and possesses the un-usual gift of being able to sing one moment one of the most brilliant florid arias, and the next a sustain-ed selection full of emotion and nathons

The tender, expressive, and smooth quality of her tones combined with fluent phrasing, perfect technique, and amazing breath control make her singing a continuous joy. To this may be added great beauty, grace and a personality of wondrous charm which wins her au-dience immediately and makes her unsurpassed as a concert singer. Miss Case sang several encores by her able accompanist, Charles

"Separazione" (G. Sgambati), "Eclogue" (Delibes), "Cavatina" (Weber), "Noel" (Augusta Holmes), "I Feel Thy Breath Blow Round Me" (Rubinstein), "Angelus" (Mme. Ohr-strom-Renard), "Serenade Fran-(Leoncavallo). with His Lute" (Chas. F. Manney),
"Le Papillon" (Felix Fourdrain),
"Skogen Sover" (Hugo Alven),
"Killebuken" (Haldan Kjerulf), "Killebuken" (Haldan Kjerun),
"Dans Ropte Felen" (August Soderman), "Remembrance" (Macfarlane), "Dawn" (Pearl G. Curran), "Hindu Slumber Song" (Harriet
Ware), "Summertime" (Ward-Steph-

HOROSCOPE.

Saturday, February 2, 1918. Early in the day Uranus and Venus old beneficent sway, but later the as-hold beneficent sway, but later the se-pect changes.

They who begin journeys should set out in the morning as there will be delays and even accidents after the The stars seem to indicate danger where transportation is concerned and this is true especially of steam rail-Uranus today is in a place believe to make for explosions and catas-trophes. The planet gives undue confidence and encourages treachery, ac cording to the seers, in this day's configuration.

Public buildings should be especially safeguarded. Theaters and places of assembly for debate or legislation are believed to be menaced by the plane-believed to be menaced by the tary away.

Venus and Uranus on the meridian at this month's lunation make for a better trend of affairs in Russia, where surprising conditions will develop.
Again the planets seem to be most favorable toward all the activities of favorable toward all the activities of women, who will succeed politically, economically and socially. Great social changes are prognosticated and these will be democratic in the best meaning of the word.

They who read the stars declare that the United States is to be marvelously protected in the war and they predict that a wonderful invention will be as effective for American arms as the U-boats have been for Germany warfare.

the U-boats have been for Germany warfare.
All places under Gemini should prosper in the next few weeks.
The stars appear to give warning of much illness among children, who will be the first to suffer from war conditions, Many may starve, particularly in New York City, which comes under a menacing sway.

Fame and love will be won by an American woman who possesses millions, it is prophesied, but "she will emerge from a cloak of calumny," the seers declare.

eers declare.
Persons whose birthday it is have Persons whose birthday it is have the sugury of travel and change, meet-ings with new friends and beginnings of novel work, but they may suffer an noyance from letters or scandals. Children born on this day have the forecast of success. These subjects of Aquarius often have literary or ar-tistic telent. (Copyright, 1918.)

NEW YORK HOTEL ARRIVALS.

not be at home today, but will be at home the following Saturday with the faculty and students of Gunaton Hall for the last time before Lent.

On Wednesday, January 30, at 4:30 p. m., in the private parlors of the Douglas Memorial M. E. Church, the Roy. Dr. Charles C. McLean officiating. Miss Amelia E. Leossier and Edward J. Farr, both of Congress Heights, were united in marriage, in the presence of their inc.

New York, Feb. 1.—Washington-ians registered at hotels here include: J. Detore, H. Dodds, Mr. and jour handicap, begin using Resinol Mrs. H. B. Hall, Bristol; H. C. Karr. Soap and see how quickly it improves. This order of services will be followed throughout the week. Holy man, New Strand; C. Find, Marland, Mrs. Heights, were united in marriage, in the presence of their inc.

Metropolitan Opera House Star Board of Trade Committee Wants to Change Street Name.

> ination of half numbers to designate thoroughfare in the District, was appointed yesterday by William G. Hen-derson, chairman of the Board of Trade committee on streets and ave-Members are James G. Kent, chair

A meeting of the public health com nittee, of which Dr. J. Percy Hickling s chairman, will be held Thursday. Officers, directors and members of he membership committee of the Belasco - Tonight, 8:20-50c to $2.00, Mat. Today, 2:20-25c to $1.57 John Barrymore - Constance Collier-in, PETER IBBETSON board are arranging a "get-together session at the Continental Hotel North Capitol street near E, for Sat-urday, February 23. The meeting will extend to George H. Macdonald, chairman of the membership committee tokens of appreciation for his work.

FORD PLANS SYSTEM

3 and 8:20 Impressions of 1917 The Ford method of building automobiles will be followed in the construction of the new type of "submarine killers" which Henry Ford has designed for the navy.

3 and 0:20 Impressions of 1917
POPULAR PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1

B. F. KEITH'S 25c
And Up Ford has designed for the navy.

The fabricated parts of the boats will be assembled in sections. As one department completes its part of a boat, it will be moved on a truck to the next department. This method will be carried but until the boats are ready for launching. The Ford U-boat destroyers will be launched on the Great Lakes and brought to the coast under their own power.

A misunderstanding at the Navy Department caused Henry Ford to lose a lot of good publicity yester-day. Seeing the story of the grant-ing of contracts to his firm for sevral score of the new ships in the norning papers, he wired to the department for permission to give ut in Detroit a complete story of his plans.

In the absence of Secretary Dani Assistant Secretary Roosevelt the story yesterday.

BOTH DENIED DIVORCE.

would clear her skin "She would be a pretty girl, if ht wasn't for that pimply, blotchy complexion!" But the regular use of Resinol Soap, aided at first by a little Resinol Ointment, would probable

POLLYANNA A subcommittee on a change of nam of Four-and-a-half street and for elim THE PLAY THAT PUTS JOY IN LIVING MACBETH man; Dr. E. S. Arnold, G. A. Myers, H. A. Vieth and H. L. Thornton. Heatless Monday is cited as the cause of postponement of the meeting of the board of directors to Tusday.

TO SPEED DESTROYERS

U-Boat Killers to Be Built on Great Twice Lakes.

ficuled the permission. Mr. Roose-evit was not aware of the fact that Secretary Daniels himself gave out Because of "the evident guilt" of Because of "the evident guilt of both parties, Justice Siddons yesterday dismissed the petition for absolute divorce brought by Dr. G. R. Lee Cole against his wife, Minnie B. Cole. Mrs. Cole's cross-bill was also dismissed. The suit was also dismissed. The suit was on the colerant of t filed in December, 1916, and was on

"Southern Pride" ARCADE SELECT DANCING

Morris Wolf Earns Signal Honor and $50 Bond.

From more than 3,000 essays aubmitted to the National Committee of Patriotic Societies on the subject "Why There Should Be a Liberty Bond In Every Home," the first prize, a fifty-dollar bond, has been awarded to Morris Wolf. Busine High School, of Washington, D. C. ranked among the first ten, are in order of excellence: Dunbar High School, of Washington; Joliet, Illinois, High School; McKinley Man-ual Training School, Washington; Gliman School, Roland Park, Mary-land; Northwestern Military Acad-emy, Wisconsin; Deerfield High School, Highland Park, Illinois; Eastern High School, Washington; Hindman Settlement School, Ken-want to come but Mother insisted that her place was with her child in such a crisis.

"When they got here he wanted to go to a hotel, but Mother insisted that they come directly to my house."

"I did not think that Mr. Trent could be induced to be so foolish as to do a thing like that," was my interpolation at this point.

"My dear Margie," exclaimed Mollie, "have you not realized yet that Mr. Trent has come to the conclusion that to live in any kind of peace with Mother is to let her have her own way in everything. Dad did it, or at least he let her think she was always having her own way though he was clever enough to put one over on her now and then.

"Both Dick and I soon learned that we must not cross her in any way if we ever wanted her to do anything for us. Mr. Trent has condently forgotten in the prick of her egotism that she had evidently forgotten in the prick of her egotism that she had to see me before and consequently that that she had to keen me before and consequently that the prick of her egotism that she had evidently forgotten in the prick of her egotism that she had to keen the low farm to keen me before and consequently that the prick of her egotism that she had to keep the prick of her egotism that she had to keep the prick of her egotism that she had to keep the prick of her egotism that she had to more serven to consequently the to know that that or on. of the Department of Education, of the Department of Education, of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, and Mrs. Philander P. Claxton.

"Unfortunately, Mother,' I said quietly, 'it will have to apply to your mother."

"Unfortunately, Mother,' I said quietly, 'it will have to apply to your day to have every see else. Chad have to apply to your as well as to every one else. Chad have to apply to your as well as to every one else. Chad have to apply to your day to have to apply to your mother."

"Unfortunately, Mother,' I said on think that the new as always having the well in the to have a campaign for the sale of Liberty bonds. The facult o

SUNDAYNIGHT

NATIONAL THEATER

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 4:30.

Prices, $2.50, $2, $1.50, $1. Tickets now on sale at Mrs. Greene's office in Droop's, 13th and G.

Monday Night -- Seats Now

MATS. WED., FRI. AND SAT.

Over the Top

Spectacular Musical Revue, with Justine Johnstone, Ed Wynn, Craig Campbell, Laurie & Bronson. The Astaires, Ma Belle and Mary Eaton, Vivien and Dagmar Oakland, Ted Lorraine, Rolanda,

5 Dozen Justine Johnstone Beauties

NEWMAN Traveltalks
Color Views
Motion Pictures

2 Shows All Week Days, 2:15 and 8:15-Except Tuesdays, Closed-2 Shows Sunday, 3:09 and 8:15. On Holidays, 3 Shows, 2:15, 5:15 and 8:15.

"Went Big."-Times.

MARYON VADIE & OTA GYGI.

Eight More-All Merry. Next Week-Gus Edwards' Song Revo

Tonight at 8:15.

Matiness: Mon.,
Thur., and Sat.,
26-50c.

THE YANKEE PRINCE

GAYETY Burlesque

The Liberty Girls

WITH JACK CONWAY.

MATS. STRAND EVES.

"HIS OWN PEOPLE"

MATS. GARDEN EVES

LAST TIME TODAY

WILLIAM RUSSELL

"IN BAD"

Continuous 10:30 A. M. to 11 P. M. Morn., Aft., 10c, 15c. Nights, 10c, 15c, 1 NOW PLAYING WALLACE REID

PLAZA 434 9th St. N. W.

GAIL KANE in

Wonderful Music night-Week-end Dance

Harry Morey & Gladys Lesi

Week-A Knight for a Day

Poli Musical Comedy Players 50 Singers, Dancers, Comedian

BOSWORTH

STELLA

MAYHEW

Sunday

BREESKIN

AMUSEMENTS.

A Good Shoe for Women Winchell Smith and John L. Golden to Have Now As a Protection from Snow, Ice and Cold prices range from $1.50 to $3.50.

Woodward &

choose from.

New York-WASHINGTON-Pari

Little White Dresses

Smocking and Tucking and Pockets Galore

Are being opened up every day in the children's department. Many of them, the very newest styles, are made of soft white voile, and there are a number of styles to

One little dress has an oddly shaped yoke, with square opening filled with

And to furnish the necessary resistance to the hard usage which Footwear gets at this time is the extra high-cut Heavy Tan Box Calfskin Boot, with 11-inch top that extends well up the calf of the leg, protecting one from the cold and the deep snow; the heavy welt sole and box toe give stability and comfort, We also suggest this shoe to women who are doing Government work out-of-doors, such as ambulance driving, field nurses, The Price Is $11.00 the Pair

Boys' Spring Shirts and Blouses Have Just Arrived

And they are just as good as ever in quality and coloring-a fact which mothers will be interested in at this time when inferior grades are not at all uncommon.

Made of the best percales, madrases, cheviots, soisettes, and in the shirts are some of pure silk. They are made for boys, as boys want them and wear them; very mannish and very stylish.

Colors are fast and the single and cluster stripes continue to be preferred—one, two and three-toned effects. Prices have not advanced at all in comparison with what we have to pay in the market today.

> Blouses, 65c to $1.50 Shirts, 75c to $3.75

Neckwear-a few of the new spring patterns have arrived, 50c.

Cupid is Holding Court On the Main Floor

His dainty messengers will fascinate you, once you see them, whether you are just large enough to see on the table or your hair is plentifully sprinkled with silver.

Every woman loves a Valentine "be she young or old"and for fear they have made you believe otherwise-boys like them, too, big boys and little boys.

There are cunning ones for the little folk, dear little kiddies with shirts and trousers of real cloth, and dainty verses suited to most any purpose.

What wife wouldn't treasure this one in her heart:

Who cooks my meals with skill and care, Who deftly mends each rip and tear, Who doesn't mind much if I swear, My Valentine. She who will all my fail-She who will all my fall-ings cloak,

And lets me in the parlor smoke,
Who loves me even when I'm broke;
I'm glad she's mine.

Long years ago Is true today For wall I know It's what he said For you to be So very far Away from me.

this:

A far-away sweetheart would just love one like

TO MY VALENTINE

What Sherman said

There are levely Valentine favors of all kinds for the grown-up parties as well as the tiny tots; place cards, luncheon sets, candle shades and all manner of dainty things. One of the Dennison Valentine outfits would keep a child happy making Valentines from now until the happy day itself. These puthts sell at 75c and the Valentines from 5c to 50c.

them. Sizes from 2 to 6 years. The smocking in pale blue threads, a group back cuffs, and two cunning pockets edged with feather stitching in blue. Another has a short waist, two oddly shaped pockets, turn-back cuffs, all edged with a tiny picot-edged ruffle, the picot stitching and French knots being of dark blue thread. $2.75. Other little dresses are smocked or stitched in pink or yellow, and sashes tied in quaint bows feature some of of inch-wide tucks about the hem, turn-